
Friday, June 1, 2018

Time: 8.00 am – 9.45 am

Venue: Capital Hilton Hotel, Washington D.C.

Meeting room: Senate

Chairs: Samir Gupta (USA), Christian von Wagner (UK)

8.00 am Introductions
Announcement of Dr. Peter Liang as new co-lead for the Working Party

Research and Policy Perspectives

8.10 am Snapshot of screening inequities in the United States
(Paul Doria-Rose, USA)

8.25 am Screening inequities in New York City
(Peter Liang, USA)

8.40 am Strategies to improve CRC screening rates: a meta-analysis
(Michael Dougherty, USA)

8.55 am General Practice provider perspectives on CRC screening and influence on non uptake
(Lucinda Bertels, Netherlands)

9.10 am Abnormal FIT follow up across 8 Federally Qualified Health Centers in Southern California
(Samir Gupta, USA)

Collaborative Ideas

9.25 am Update to summary of inequities in CRC screening in the US Survey/review of published/unpublished rates of colonoscopy uptake after abnormal FIT

9.40 am Wrap up